YES, BOYS, I'M DONE, DECLARES ROOSEVELT TO REAL 'FOL- LOWERS'

Oyster, Bay, N. Y., June 11—"Yes, boys, I am done with politics!"

In this manner Theodore Roosevelt reiterated tonight that he is "out of politics."

"I want to tell you newspapermen," he said, "that it's of no use for you to come up here to see me. I will have nothing to say. I will answer no questions, so please don't ask me to. I am out of politics."

If the former President has any plans for the immediate future other than to continue his literary work he has not made them public. His secretary, John W. McGrath, is expected to arrive here tomorrow from Chicago with a detailed report of the happenings at both the Republican and Progressive conventions.

The telegraph wires last night and today brought a flood of messages to Colonel Roosevelt. It was announced that most of them approved his action in declining to become a candidate on the Progressive ticket.

Whenever it is possible to do so, one should get into the garden with hoe or cultivator after each heavy rain. This keeps the soil from baking and loose enough so that both air and moisture will circulate through it and thus insure conditions that are most favorable to the growth of vegetation. On small areas there is no tool that answers this purpose better than a rake, as it breaks the surface crust and a good deal of ground can also be covered in a short time.

Ye Scribe has been on the sick list. McKinley Muse has gone to Danville, Illinois.

J. C. Wilson and wife autoed to Flemingsburg last Sunday.

Ora Evans will leave this week for Cincinnati seeking employment.

William M. Monk and family of Big Run, visited friends here last Sunday.

H. B. Muse, aged 76, who has been very low for some time with Bright's disease is some better.

Squire Muse assessed the costs amounting to $5.00 against Jack Moore here for a breach of peace.

Merchant James Muse is preparing to trade his Ford auto in on a new Overland and he paying the difference.

Thomas D. and G. A. Muse have sent to New York and purchased four Holstein calves paying $50 each for same.

Game Warden Henderson of Flemingsburg was called here last week on account of the sickness of his child, that was visiting relatives here.

Charles H. Compton who has just returned from a visit to Carter county says that the crops are very bad there on account of the long continued wet weather.

From all prospects there will be a large crop of apples, peaches, plums, pears and blackberries in this territory. The fruit crop hardly ever misses in this end of Fleming county.

The trustees for the sub-districts in this Educational met here recently and employed the following teachers for each sub-district: Charles H. Compton, Pea Ridge; Prof. E. Gardner, Muses Mills; Edgar Ham, Anderson Branch; Miss Lena Knapp, Ryan; Miss Emma Morrison, Franklin; Clarence James, Big Run; Miss Davis, Emmons; Thomas Hurst, Goddard, and Mrs. Maggie Campbell, Sugar Tree. These are all good schools, and will begin during July and August for 7 months' term each.

HUGHES STARTS HIS CAMPAIGN

Washington, June 11—Charles E. Hughes will begin his fight for the Presidency tomorrow morning with a series of political conferences in New York City. His action in hastening to New York, taken in connection with the telegram of acceptance to Chairman Harding, is construed as removing any doubts about his intention to wage a vigorous campaign from the very start.

The nominee plans to be in New York in time to meet the Republican leaders returning from the Chicago convention. He feels certain of an ultimate victory.

The chief questions to be discussed now concern the selection of the Chairman of the National Committee on the other natural Presidential campaign part to be played by Mr. Hughes himself. Points to be emphasized in the reply to his notification will be considered.

After six years of complete retirement from political activity Mr. Hughes finds himself quite out of touch with politics, and he is turning to his friends in New York for information and guidance.

AGREE TO PAY SHAREHOLDERS OF DEFUNCT GEO. ALEXANDER & CO., STATE BANK.

(Paris Kentuckian-Citizen)

The stockholders, including the Director-stockholders, of the Geo. Alexander & Co. State Bank, notified Attorney John J. Williams, who represents State Banking Commissioner T. J. Smith, that they would pay the double liability on their stock without further question or litigation.

There are about twenty individual shareholders who will have to pay to the Banking Commissioner amounts ranging from $100 to $2,700 each, or a total of about $16,000, which will now be applied to the payment of depositors in the defunct banking institution. It is said that with the collection of the $16,000 liability money from the stockholders, together with the amount to be paid by the Bank of Louisville, the latter sum totaling some $29,000, will soon be paid over to the depositors, giving them another dividend of 12 per cent or more to their credit.

WHAT IS NEEDED

(Washington Post)

Wages have been steadily rising in the United States. The cost of raw material has been increasing. Humane legislation has added to the cost of production, reducing the hours of workmen and eliminating child labor. What is needed is a tariff that will equal the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad.

WARM RECEPTION FOR FAIRBANKS IN HOME TOWN

Indianapolis, Ind., June 11—Charles W. Fairbanks left Indianapolis this afternoon by automobile for Delaware, Ohio, to attend the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Ohio Wesleyan University Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday he will motor to Canton, O., to attend the annual meeting of the trustees of the McKinley Memorial Association on the following day.

Mr. Fairbanks will return from Canton direct to Indianapolis Friday evening.

Mr. Fairbanks attended services at the Meridian Street Methodist Episcopal Church this morning and at the close of the services practically all the large congregation waited and warmly congratulated him upon his nomination for Vice President.

Before leaving this afternoon Mr. Fairbanks gave out a statement expressing his appreciation for the loyal support of his Indiana home and other friends throughout the country gave him at the Chicago convention. He said:

"I prize more the loyal, faithful, untiring support of the Indiana delegation and other friends than any possible honor of the Chicago convention. No man ever had a more generous support under similar circumstances. I am grateful to every delegate and alternate from the bottom of my heart. I shall always remember such service with a gratitude which is inexpressible."

Congratulatory telegraph and telephone messages continued to arrive for Mr. Fairbanks all last night and today. It was learned today that among the first to extend congratulations was Vice President Marshall, who is here at his home, a few blocks from the home of Mr. Fairbanks. Mr. Marshall is expected to be Mr. Fairbanks' opponent.

DO NOT EAT WHEN FATIGUED

It is unwise to eat immediately after exercise of much exertion; always rest for half an hour. The digestive organs are weakened by exertion and require rest before they can perform their natural functions. When one is fatigued the saliva is scant, the glands of the stomach will not form gastric juice and the digestive apparatus is incapable of doing efficient work. Never come in after a long and fatigued walk and sit down to eat or drink. If in summer time it may cost one his life to drink when overheated and fatigued. It is better to remain hungry and thirsty until one is cooled off and rested.

If we could build a solid column of ice from the earth to the sun two miles and half in diameter, spanning the intervening distance of 93,000,000 miles, and if the sun should concentrate its entire power on it, it would dissolve in a single second, according to a calculation made by Prof. Young.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

Belle of Maysville

The most wonderful whisky that ever drove the skeleton from a feast or painted landscapes in the brain of man. It is the mingled souls of wheat and corn. In it you will find the sunshine and the shadow that chased each other over the billowy fields; the breath of June; the carol of the lark; the dew of night; the wealth of summer; and Autumn's rich content—all golden with imprisoned light.

Drink it, and you will hear the voices of men and maidens singing the "Harvest Home" mingled with the laughter of children. Drink it, and you will feel within your blood the star-lit dawns, the dreamy, tawny dusks of many perfect days. For many years this liquid joy has been confined within the happy staves of oak, longing to touch the lips of man.

Yours for, $3.00, $4.00 and $6.00 per gallon. Sold only by
